

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE

Political Science Concentration

An Associate Degree is equivalent to the first two years of a four-year university degree. Universities in British Columbia will guarantee 60 transfer credits to holders of an Associate Degree. Students must meet the grade point average (GPA) established by each university for admission. Upon completion, students qualify to apply for a post-graduate work permit in Canada.

Program Overview

- The Associate of Arts Degree in Political Science prepares students to pursue a Bachelor's degree in Political Science or a related field and provides them with an understanding of political systems and behaviour.
- Students will explore concepts and structures of power, human interaction, local and global challenges, and international relationships.
- Students will be able to analyze and understand the principles of power relations that influence the lives of those around them.

Skills Gained

-  Strong knowledge of various political systems and cultures.
-  Understanding of current social, organizational, and global issues.
-  Excellent critical thinking abilities to explore various ideologies and political systems.
-  Effectively communicate ideas through verbal and written channels.
