1. Regular attendance is expected of students in all classes, lectures and laboratories. Students who miss a substantial number of classes in any course during the semester may be considered to be disruptive to the orderly function of the course and the case may be referred to the Academic Board.
2. Students will aim to arrive at all classes early so as to be ready when the class begins – this means taking a seat and getting out paper, pens, necessary texts and so on before the class starts.
3. Students will not expect to leave the class before the instructor has finished. On those rare occasions when a student must leave a class early he/she should seek the permission of the instructor before the class starts. If a student must excuse himself/herself during a class the student should request permission and leave as quietly as possible.
4. Cellphones ringing (and similar electronic devices) will be turned off during classes, not simply switched to “vibrate” mode. They may be used during a class only to engage in the class or source course material etc. only if the instructor gives his/her explicit permission.
5. Students will speak respectfully when asking a question or answering a question posed by the instructor.
6. Students may not eat or drink during classes unless the instructor indicates that this is acceptable in his/her class.

Remote Learning - Synchronous:
