

Student Association Engagement Volunteers

The Columbia College Student Association (CCSA) is looking for 10 volunteers from diverse backgrounds to support us in diversification, outreach, and communication with current Columbia College students. The hours will be a minimum of 1 hour per week up to any number of hours that you are willing to spend. The 10 volunteers will form a group called the “Student Association Engagement Committee” – or Engagement Committee, and it will run from July 4th to August 15th.

Volunteer Description:

Responsibilities:

1. Present and execute ideas to promote the CCSA to other students through social media and other suitable channels.
2. Discuss problems faced by students of various backgrounds in the college and bring it to the CCSA’s attention.
3. Conduct meetings within the group to discuss solutions and initiatives that the CCSA can take to improve student life.
4. Discuss events and activities that can be hosted by the CCSA to foster a sense of community within the student body.
5. Report any feedback from meetings to the Chair of the group (member of CCSA).
6. Attend CCSA bi-weekly meetings to present decisions made.

Volunteers can expect to gain the following:

1. Leadership qualities
2. Teamwork skills
3. Communication skills
4. Increased Social Media Literacy
5. Certificate of Recognition
6. Letter of Recommendation (upon request)
7. Publicity on the CCSA Instagram Page
8. A chance to make change in Columbia College.

To apply for this position, please fill in this form. The deadline for volunteer applications is 11.59 pm on 30th June 2021.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email the CCSA at ccsa@columbiacollege.ca.
