

Student Plagiarizes or Carries out Academic Misconduct: Instructor suspects that a student has cheated or carried out academic misconduct and gathers whatever supporting evidence is available.

Within 3 weeks of incident unless there are extenuating circumstances (approval required by AVP)

The Instructor completes Part 1 of the CC Plagiarism/cheating or Academic Misconduct Form and :

1. Explains the charge to the student by email or in person unless the student cannot be reached.
2. Submits the report to the Counsellor along with any supporting evidence thereby initiating a plagiarism charge against the student. It is important that the Instructor be explicit.

Within 1 working day of receiving the report from the Instructor.

The Counsellor emails the student at their Columbia College email address. The email will advise the student of the charge being filed, the consequences of the charge, the right to appeal, and the necessity to see a Counsellor.

Within 1 week of receiving the report from the Counsellor

Within 1 week of receiving notification of the charge from the Counsellor, the Student must see the Counsellor and sign Part 3 of the Plagiarism Report or the Academic Misconduct Report acknowledging that they understand the nature and consequences of the charge and that they have been advised again of right to appeal the charge within one week.

Week 14 plagiarism or academic misconduct charge:
If a student does not see a Counsellor in Week 14, the appeal period is extended to the end of the 1st week of classes in the next semester and the AIAC hearing is extended to the end of the 2nd week of classes in the next semester. A DEF grade may be assigned in such

Student Appeals: informs Counsellor within 1 week of receiving the charge

No appeal. The Counsellor checks the student's file for previous charges and demerits. Note: See 2.6 Academic Misconduct for penalties. Penalties below are for Plagiarism and Cheating charges only.
