

Established in 1936, Columbia College proudly serves as one of Canada's longest established international not-for-profit colleges. Thousands of Canadian and international students have completed their qualifications at Columbia College and used these as a platform for successful university careers.

Columbia College is located on the unceded territories of the Coast Salish Peoples, including xwməθkwəyəm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), Stó:lō and Səlílwəta? /Selilwitulh (TsleilWaututh) Nations. We also acknowledge all non-status peoples and members of other tribes who live in Vancouver.
